ashes to ashes<sup>pty ltd</sup> fireworks funerals

Ashes to Ashes Pty Ltd was established in 2001 and has become the leader and pioneer of fireworks funerals in Australia. We offer a unique yet personal service to commemorate and celebrate the lives of those we have loved and lost too soon, by sending their cremated ashes high into the sky in a beautiful and spectacular fireworks display. An unforgettable closing memory of reflection as sadness and grief are replaced by wonderment then celebration as the journey towards closure begins.

Our Team of Professionals

Each member of our team is trained to handle your loved ones ashes with the highest level of dignity and respect from the moment they are in our possession through to embedding them into the fireworks.

What are my Choices?

Whether you choose to farewell the entire remains of ashes or acquire a small amount to keep is your decision. The location, music, colours and length of the memorial are entirely your choice we are here to help you with these decisions.

Product Range

We ensure every memorial is unique, special and tells a story of the loved one we are honouring. Anything from a few single bursts right up to an unforgettable 3 to 7 minute fireworks memorial.

Never Forgotten

For some it is hard to remember every moment of the evening so a video of the fireworks memorial will be supplied to help you recall the details of the event for you to keep.

Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I have a fireworks memorial?

As long as we can obtain approval from the relevant councils, authorities, religious bodies or land owners we can make it happen. We cover all States and Territories throughout Australia.

What is the cost?

This depends on many factors including location, permit costs, the size and style of the fireworks memorial. The more details we have the faster and easier it will be to obtain costing for you..

Can I choose fireworks colours and music?

Absolutely! Colour is an important part of our lives, we can help you find the colours that reflect the memories and character of your loved one, making the event distinctive and individual. Same goes for the music, we choreograph the fireworks to tell a story in synchronisation with a song or music that celebrates the life of your loved one.

Can ashes to ashes fireworks funerals organise the cremation?

Yes, our funeral director can assist with other arrangements including the cremation.
